New Hampshire came down to Canobie Lake, Feeling sure she knew how to play ball, Massachusetts went up just to prove to them That "pride goeth before a fall."

Six of Massachusetts' famous nine From "the home of honest values" went They wiped the floor with the Granite State Unkind—yet they refuse to repent.

The Governor of N. H. and Council were there With silk hat and brass buttons galore, But the boys made them feel like thirty cents Those little runts at Bicknell's Store.

Only one more demonstration of the fact that "The Home of Honest Values" leads the procession.

Obituary.

CHARLES H. BARON.

Charles H. Baron died last Sunday at his home in Dedham after a three months' illness, at the age of 73 years. The deceased was born in Andover in 1831, but during the last 60 years he has resided in Dedham. Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Edward and Charles, to mourn his loss. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Lord of Lowell and Mrs. Lewis Clark of Ballardvale. The funeral was held Tuesday from his late home in Dedham. Interment in Episcopal cemetery, Dedham.

Good Templars' Entertainment.

There was a large attendance at the entertainment held in good Templars' hall under the auspices of Ballardvale lodge No. 105, last Monday evening. The following program was rendered in a very satisfactory manner: Recitation, by Annie Platt, reading, "The Forty-nine Cent Store," by Miss Annie Henry of Lawrence, song by Miss Edith Hoffman, reading by Miss Henry. The entertainment closed with the following tableaux which were pronounced by all to be the best ever given in the Vale. Tableaux: "Good morning, have you used Pearl's Soap," by Stella Daley; "Lowney's Chocolates," by Edith Fallows; "Can you say Zu Zu," Willie McIntyre; "The boss wears Shawknit," by Annibel Steed; "Cream of Wheat," by Willie Scott and four others; "It's so lovely I just can't go to bed," by Bertha Farrell; "Sunny Jim," by Willie McIntyre; "Look pleasant now," by Laura Marland and Beatrice Scott; "Her reflection," by Agnes Cummings; "The Favorite," by Clara Miller; "Youth," by Agnes Cummings and Ethel Gardner; "Good-night," Florence Schneider; "Baker's Cocoa," by Ethel Gardner; "The Men and Women of Tomorrow," by 15 boys and girls.

Miss Hoffman sang her solo in a very pleasing manner. Miss Henry, who is a well known Lawrence reader, rendered her selections in a characteristic, pleasing and artistic manner and her eulogies showed how well her efforts were appreciated by those present.

The candy table was in charge of Mrs. Mary A. Fessenden and Miss Eva C. Brackett. The mystery table was looked after by Edmund Hammond and Roy Pearson. The entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Congregational Children's Day Concert.

The annual Children's Day concert was held in the Congregational church last Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. The church was filled to overflowing. The following program was given in an exceptionally interesting manner: Singing by the choir; recitations, Minnie McIntyre, Thelma Wammanaker, Foster Matthews, Lena Palmer, Allen Wood; singing by the children; recitation by Agnes Cummings; exercise by little girls; recitations, Annabel Steed, Letta Fillebrown; singing by the children; recitations, Helen Steed, Laura Marland, Harry Evans, Harriet Newton; singing by the choir; recitations, Jennie Miller, Flossie Evans, Helen Davies; singing by the children; recitations, Birdie Evans, Willie McIntyre, Agnes Cummings; singing by the children; recitations, Lester Abbott, Miss Bethe Miller, Miss Marjorie Davies; singing, "Glad Hosannas" by the choir.

Methodist Children's Day Concert.

There was a large attendance at the annual Children's Day concert held in the Methodist church last Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The following program was very creditably rendered: Song, "Awake, O Sleeping Valleys," by the choir; scripture reading and prayer by the pastor; song, "Beautiful Roses," by the choir; recitation, by Miss Pearl Nason; exercise by four boys; song by the children; recitations, Gertrude Stark, George Brear, song, "Summer is calling," by young ladies; recitations, Emily Moody, Edith Fallows; song, "Praise the Lord," by the choir; recitations, Miss Pearl Nason, Viola Fallows; song, "Daisies and Roses," by young ladies; exercise by three boys; recitation, by Eva Howell; song, "Praising their Maker," recitation by Miss M. Louise Hammond; song, "Behold the Goodness of the Lord" by the choir.

BASEBALL.

Ballardvale, 8; Ketchup A. C., 7.

Ballardvale won its third victory of the season by defeating the Ketchup A. C. of Lowell, on the Plains, Saturday afternoon by the score of 8 to 7. While there were a number of errors made, it was the best played game of the season. Doyle struck out ten men, pitching his best when men were on bases. Henderson played a star game, making four hits, Saunders also batted well, making three hits, including two two baggers. Lynch played well in the field. The visitors played well but were unable to hit the ball when hits meant runs.

The score:

PLEASANT SCENES MARK CLOSING HOURS IN HOUSE.

BOSTON, June 10.—Some very pleasant incidents marked the closing hours of the House of Representatives yesterday. The House spent a very pleasant hour from 4 to 5 o'clock yesterday, the period being given up to presentation of the Executive Session of Lexington was placed in the speaker's chair and Mr. Frothingham took a seat on the floor. Then Representative Patterson of Barnstable offered resolutions of thanks and praise for the presiding ability of Speaker Frothingham. The resolutions, spoken of his judgment, courtesy and tact, and were heartily applauded.

Brief speeches seconding the resolutions were made by Messrs. Luce of Somerville, Schofield of Ipswich, Hayes of Lowell, Drinkwater of Braintree, Taft of Worcester and Aylward of Cambridge.

Mr. Newton of Everett then in a graceful speech presented to the speaker a beautiful mahogany library desk and the speaker made a pretty speech of acceptance.

Mr. Hart of Boston moved resolutions of thanks for the services of clerk of the house James W. Kimball, Messrs. "Outright and Cole" spoke briefly in the same vein. In concluding his address Mr. Cole presented an open face gold watch to Mr. Kimball, who made a neat speech of thanks.

Messrs. Davis of Salem and Ham of Boston bespoke the appreciation of the House for the services of Chairman Rev. Daniel W. Waldron, who was presented with a silver inkstand.

Messrs. Grady of Boston and Parker of Springfield spoke highly of the services of sergeant-at-arms David T. Remington, who responded in a brief speech.

Mr. Pingree of Haverhill then presented Assistant Clerk Bridgman with a handsome silver dish and the other assistants, Carl E. Raymond, Clarence Smith and Fred Wilson, were presented with useful silver gifts.

John Quinn of Boston then gave each of the pages a gold piece, in a witty speech, saying that he hoped each would some day be President of the United States.

At 9:45 o'clock last night Col. W. M. Olin, secretary of state, appeared in the House of Representatives, and addressing Speaker Frothingham in formal words, prorogued the legislature of 1904.

A few minutes before this he performed a similar duty in the senate. Sen. Olin announced that during the year the governor had signed 160 bills and 10 resolutions, and vetoed 15 measures. Last year he signed 482 bills, 161 resolutions and vetoed 14 measures.

P. A. NINE'S RECORD.

The batting of the Phillips Andover academy baseball team has been weak the past season. Only one regular player, Kinney, has an average over .300. His average is .344. Capt. Clough, who comes next, has an average of .285. Murphy comes next with .258 and Dillon next with .255. Although Dillon has made only 13 hits in 16 games, his batting has counted for he has made his hit at opportune times, advancing and often scoring baserunners. Kinney did excellent work in the preliminary games but did not connect safely in the Exeter game. Reilly, who made only 11 hits in 17 games and has a batting average of .181, did by far the best work of any of the Andover line in the championship contest with Exeter, making three singles, and doing splendid work at second base.

Murphy's work at center field has been excellent. He has made several brilliant running catches. Schildmiller's batting has been fairly good and he has been found with his fielding in left garden.

Few college pitchers surpass R. W. Brown. He has speed, deceptive curves and uses excellent judgment in selecting the style of ball to deliver. His batting has been poor, but at least one game he hit safely the only day for Andover. R. C. Brown, catcher, in spite of a serious injury in the Andover-Exeter game last fall, did excellent service on the baseball nine. He is a steady player and his throwing to bases has been especially good.

Capt. Clough is easily the best first baseman who has ever come to Andover. He works hard and conscientiously and encourages his team to its best efforts. Cushman was rewarded by being put at shortstop after three years of substitute work and his playing has been steady, if not brilliant.

Reilly, who played in 10 of the 183 games, behind the bat was at bat seven times and made three hits, giving him the splendid batting average of .429. Langan, substitute pitcher, made a splendid showing in the few games in which he played.

CUBAN ATHLETICS, 1; ANDOVER, 2.

The Phillips Andover baseball nine was defeated 1 to 0 by the Cuban Athletics on Butters' field yesterday afternoon in a contest which was characterized by the fastest kind of playing on the part of both teams.

The Cubans presented a better team than Andover has met this year, being strong in every position in the field and having a heavy hitting aggregation.

R. W. Brown pitched a splendid game and allowed only four hits. One of these was the only run made. Andover got five hits off Muriez, the Cuban pitcher, but they were scored. The visitors gave a wonderful exhibition of fielding. Bustante's work at short stop being little short of phenomenal, behind Andover at least. The base throwing of the team was excellent, all the players handled the ball with perfect ease and looked reckless but proved to be gravely accurate. Muriez handled four bunt hits, which would have ordinarily been safe, they were so well pitched.

For Andover, Dillon caught four dirt-bait flies in right field and Reilly and Cushman did fast work at short and short. Cushman, Reilly and Clough executed a fast double play.

The score:

CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES.

Children's day was observed with appropriate exercises in the local churches Sunday. At the Methodist church the pastor, Rev. W. F. Ineson, preached an appropriate sermon for children in the morning and Herbert Fay Nye sang "Suffer Little Children." The church was elaborately decorated with potted plants, ferns, wild and cultivated flowers and large bouquets, which ornamented the pulpit, and were placed about the church in profusion, making a very pretty appearance. A large place in the form of an open book and another in the form of a star, made wholly of daisies, ornamented the pulpit platform. These were made by Mrs. William Thom. A large evergreen cross stood just back of the pulpit. The decorating was done by Misses Elsie and Lillian Searle. The children's concert was given in the evening and the program was rendered in a creditable manner. There was a large attendance. Following is the program:

The general committee comprised the superintendent, Arthur Searle, Elsie Searle, Mary Donahue, and James Moxson. The concert music was in charge of Herbert F. Nye and Miss Elsie Searle. At the morning service at the Methodist church the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Orr was christened Lillie Maud Orr.

At the Baptist church the exercises took place at 10:30 a. m. The church was elaborately decorated with flowers, and three canary birds suspended from the chandeliers added to the cheerfulness of the occasion by their song of joy. The following program was carried out under the direction of S. J. Smith, the superintendent:

WAR AND EDUCATION AS VIEWED BY PRIEST.

Bishop Cyrus D. Foss was talking last week at Los Angeles about the world's custom of spending more on armies and navies than on education. "I once heard this custom epigrammatically condemned by an Irish Priest," said Bishop Foss. "There was under discussion a bill for appropriate $36,000,000 for battleships and $12,000,000 for schools. The priest spoke against the bill, and his speech ended in this way: "Friends, consider this proposal. Its absurdity is evident. For education, $12,000,000; for warfare, $36,000,000. That is to say, $12,000,000 for putting brains in, and $36,000,000 for blowing them out."

COMMERCE and INDUSTRY

Commercial.

Ship Trust Prosperous.

The report of the past year's earnings of the International Mercantile Marine company shows that the net profits exceed all fixed charges by about $2,000,000. Of this $1,500,000 is carried into the insurance fund, leaving a surplus for profit and loss of $500,000.

Fierce Ocean Rate War.

The four big steamship lines, Hamburg-American, Holland-American, Red Star and North German Lloyd, comprising the North Atlantic conference, have decided to join the rate war against the Cunard line by reducing the steamer passage to $15, while the American line has reduced the rate to $10. The first ship load of immigrants under the $10 rate showed a marked increase in the number rejected by the Ellis Island authorities.

The Pennsylvania's Income.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pennsylvania railroad at Pittsburgh it was shown that a total operation of 1,339 miles of railroads during the year 1903 had produced gross earnings of $36,902,904 at an expense of $27,116,683. The net income after all allowances was $13,853,717. The former board of directors was re-elected.

Abyssinia Favors Americans.

A preliminary concession for the construction of railways and mining of ores in Abyssinia has been granted to an American syndicate by King Menelik through the representation of Baron von Falkenberg, a German economist.

Labor.

Break in Lake Strike.

Just as the Civic Federation had abandoned its attempts to settle the strike of masters and pilots on the great lakes a number of masters began taking out ships from Superior ports, and a general collapse of the strike was expected to follow.

Ship Firemen Begin Strike.

A strike order affecting 4,500 men was ordered by the Atlantic Coast Seamen's union on Wednesday for a new scale and recognition of the union. The ship firemen were first called out, but were slow to respond.

To Defend Union Label.

The Chicago Federation of Labor has recommended that all unions impose heavy fines upon any member who buys or permits any member of his family to buy an article not bearing the union label.

Ohio Mine Strike Off.

By mutual concession the strike of 8,000 miners in the Fifth subdistrict of Ohio was declared off, and the men have resumed work.

Sheet Metal Strike Compromised.

The Baltimore strike of sheet metal workers, which was begun to enforce a demand for a minimum wage of $3 for an eight hour day and the recognition of the card system, has been settled, the employers agreeing to the shorter day and a minimum wage of $2.75.

SOCIOLOGICAL

War on Tuberculosis Begun.

Systematic national warfare upon tuberculosis was planned at the first meeting of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, held at Atlantic City, N. J., June 6. The objects of the association were set forth as the study of tuberculosis in all its forms, the dissemination of knowledge concerning its causes, treatment and prevention and the encouragement of the scientific treatment of the disease. A world's congress of tuberculosis was planned for two years hence at Philadelphia.

Jurors Should Be Abstainers.

Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, author of temperance text books, announcing the attitude of the W. C. T. U. on the subject of the qualification of the moderate drinker to sit as a juror on alcoholic cases, quotes the famous German, Dr. Forel: "As long as one drinks just one glass a month one feels the irresistible need of excusing the defendant that glass and unconsciously becomes an advocate of the alcohol habit."

Missouri Prevents Bullfight.

At the last moment when several thousand persons had gathered in a temporary arena near the world's fair grounds at St. Louis, June 5, to witness an advertised bullfight, the performance was prevented by order of Governor Dockery in response to numerous protests from religious and humane societies. Angered by this action, the crowd of spectators clamored for the return of their money and in the course of a riot set fire to the grand stand and tried to lynch the manager.

SCIENTIFIC

Tuberculosis and Phthisis.

Medical men are awaiting with interest the official report from Professor Schron of Naples, Italy, regarding his recent experiments with a new microbe which is said to be the cause of the pulmonary disease known as phthisis. Inasmuch as this microbe is believed to be entirely different from that which causes tuberculosis of the joints, glands and skin, Professor Schron asserts that his discovery explains why the Koch serum aggravated instead of curing phthisis. This statement has been ridiculed by some of the best American authorities.

Medicos at the Seashore.

Atlantic City, N. J., was the scene last week of a great gathering of physicians and surgeons from all parts of the country, the occasion being the meeting of the American Medical association. An appeal for subscriptions for a monument to the physician hero, Major Walter Reed, who sacrificed his life in tracing the cause of yellow fever in Cuba, was enthusiastically received and $7,000 pledged and given on the spot.

Dynamite Horror Makes Labor Crisis

Labor unionism's worst enemy was the dastardly dynamiter who killed fourteen nonunion miners and injured others as they were returning from work at the Victor (Colo.) railroad station, June 6. Aside from its direct consequences in the declaration of martial law for Teller county, the arrest and deportation of all union miners by the militia under Adjutant General Sherman Bell, the closing of the Portland mines worked by union labor, the sacking of the office of the Victor Record and the shooting of a number of men who resisted the soldiers and the vigilance officers, the effect of this murderous act has been to lessen public sympathy for the strikers and to obscure the real issues of the struggle which has been waged for a year at a cost of over $20,000,000 to employers and employees.

The Western Federation of Miners itself was among the first to deplore and disavow this violent attack on the strike breakers and has offered $5,000 reward for the apprehension of the perpetrators.

The mine owners and other prominent citizens at once held a meeting and organized a vigilance committee. Sheriff Robertson, a strike sympathizer, was forced to resign on threat of lynching. In his place Edward Bell was appointed.

Governor Peabody hastily returned to Denver from St. Louis. He was greatly pleased by the decision of the supreme court allowing him to suspend the writ of habeas corpus in the Moyer case. This was rendered on the ground that a state of insurrection existed.

EXETER 2, ANDOVER 1.

Phillips Exeter defeated Phillips Andover for the baseball championship Saturday afternoon, 2 to 1, in a splendidly fought contest. Exeter owes her victory to better batting. Andover put up a perfect fielding game, but was unable to bat when men were on bases with a single exception, Dillon scoring Reilly, the only Andover man to make a circuit of the bases.

Exeter showed a confidence when at bat that was almost irresistible and although R. W. Brown made 12 strikeouts and pitched a remarkable game, he was unable to hold down the Exeter hits in the sixth inning, when two runs came in after the bases had been filled.

Andover had several chances to score, but the much needed hits did not come and the hope raised in the ninth inning when Reilly made his third hit was soon dashed to the ground by the inability of the batters who followed to connect safely with the sphere. Murphy made a hard drive, but it happened to be where Hamill could stop it and the game ended with the score 2 to 1 in Exeter's favor.

The largest crowd that ever witnessed an Andover-Exeter baseball game was gathered on Brothers' field and the closeness of the score kept enthusiasm at the highest pitch throughout the contest. There was the usual display of crimson and blue banners and cheering and singing of school songs by students. The Andover songs were sung to the music of the Andover Brass band.

The contest was similar to the game won by Andover a year ago, only the situation was reversed. In that game Andover won by a score of 1 to 0 and R. W. Brown had Exeter at his mercy. Exeter played a wonderfully fast fielding game and repeatedly prevented Andover from scoring. Saturday Cook had Andover at his mercy and Exeter was the aggressor, Andover having to work her hardest to prevent more Exeter runs. Andover did not let up in her attempt to pull out a victory and the defeat was no disgrace.

There were several sensational plays made. Clapp, the little Exeter shortstop, robbed R. C. Brown of a hit in the third inning by pulling down his drive. Clough sent out a foul ball in the sixth inning which ordinarily would have been good for three bases, but Tilton was playing deep and he caught the ball when he was almost out to the right field fence. In the fourth inning Murphy made a wonderful catch of a fly to short center off Hamilton's bat. The bases were full with one out. Flock was on third and thinking that there was no doubt about the hit being safe ran almost to the plate before he was aware that the ball had been caught. Murphy sent the ball to R. C. Brown who had no difficulty in relaying the ball back to third before Flock could regain the base. It was a brilliant double play at a most critical point of the game.

Reilly did by far the best work for Andover. He made three of the four hits and his stop of Anson's drive in the ninth was a phenomenal one. The ball was hit hard and went close to second base, a point ordinarily good for a single, but Reilly was there, picked it up cleanly and threw his man out at first.

Automobile Speeding.

The limit has been pretty nearly reached in Andover in dealing with the automobilists. The public has been patient, the police have been complaisant, and the new fad has controlled the field. But the call is now for a change and the public demands a change and calls upon Chief Frye to see that the speed limit law is complied with on the town streets. For facts relative to the conditions a correspondent's letter of this week is most explicit. He writes:—

"The following numbers stand for some of the machines that travelled at a higher rate of speed down Main street during the past two weeks. These represent those that I observed. A great many others exceeded the legal rate of speed, but not being near the street at all times I was unable to get their numbers.

There is no possible excuse for the action of these automobile owners. Last Sunday I counted sixty-eight machines during the five hours of observation. How many passed during the later hours in the day, I do not know.

People who drive these machines are responsible and certainly should have some regard for the rights of others. There is a marked difference between the man in a carriage driving down Main street and the man in the automobile. The carriage driver turns out at Morton street if people are getting on or getting off cars, and he is careful to keep on his side of the road and to turn out. The attitude of the chauffeur is just the opposite. A dozen times Sunday I saw dozens of persons about to board cars at Morton street. Suddenly sounds the horn—not unlike the honk of an asthmatic wild goose. A big machine comes tearing down the hill. The people run to the sidewalk. The car waits until the danger is over, then the people climb aboard. In brief, it is 'night makes right'. If the town officials would fine all speeders, this evil would come to an end.

Some of these days we shall have a tragedy on Morton street. It is an outrage. Let us lock the stable door before the horse is stolen.

There is little to be added to the above. What this citizen has seen, has been seen by scores of others, and the police cannot be unmindful of the law breaking and the danger to the public arising from it. The thing to do now is to stop it.

Editorial Cinders.

The next five days are the great days in Andover's educational life. At Phillips there is little out of the ordinary in the Commencement program, but the doings there are always interesting. At Abbot the beautiful new McKee building is to be opened, and that event will add largely to the usual pleasure of the many who are interested in that institution. To those who follow closely the program for both schools, the coming week promises to be strenuous, but it also promises to bring a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction as marking another year of brilliant success in Andover's great schools.

Have you looked at the new athletic field lately? And more important, have you contributed your share to help on the good work of completing this very desirable improvement for the Andover youth? A minstrel show is on the list to be conducted for the benefit of this work, and other aids to the good work are contemplated, and it all calls for just as substantial interest as possible from everybody.

A tablet to the memory of Dr. Bancroft, and a memorial service for Prof. Coy, are two events that come at Commencement time, which are most impressive reminders that the "new" is replacing the "old" in the educational world. Well may the "new", however, dwell in the memory and cherish the ideas of such men as these two who did so much for Phillips and for education during the last quarter century.

Of all the absurd holidays, the "17th of June" strikes us as the most ridiculous in the list. Confined exclusively to Boston, it disturbs the business of the entire state because of that city's prominence. It seems to serve almost no purpose, save to give the citizens in the Bunker Hill district an opportunity to make a noise, and the overworked bank clerks of the State a day off. The best thing to do with it would be to abolish it.

THE CLOSING DAYS

Many Interesting Events to Mark the Last Days at Phillips and Abbot.

The calendar printed on Page 1 gives a complete list of the events to come at the Andover schools during the next week, but it may be of value to Townsman readers to have the more important doings emphasized by special notice.

Phillips Academy

There is little of a special character connected with the Phillips closing days, the principal exception to this statement being the presentation of a memorial tablet to Dr. Bancroft.

The tablet has been erected in memory of Dr. Bancroft and presented by the New York Alumni association of Phillips Academy. It will be unveiled in connection with the regular commencement exercises of the Academy, at the Stone chapel on Wednesday morning. A short presentation will be made by a member of the New York Association. The tablet will be placed in the rear of the chapel.

Abbot Academy

The seventy-fifth anniversary of Abbot Academy bids fair to be marked by the return of an unusually large number of old scholars who are eager to celebrate the opening of the McKee Memorial Building.

It has been the intention of the committee of arrangements to send engraved invitations to all donors to the new building, but it is hoped that all the friends of the school, resident and visiting, will consider themselves welcome to the dedication exercises in the new hall and to the exercises in the South church. Special tickets are required for the Draper Reading and the Musicales. As these two entertainments must be given this year in Abbot Hall, there will be few tickets left after visiting friends are provided for. The school regrets that lack of space limits its hospitality.

Alumnae luncheon tickets have been reserved for all who have notified Miss Bosher of their intention to be present and will be given out on application at the office, Draper hall, Tuesday noon.

There will be an Alumnae lunch in the McKee building at 1 o'clock, to which the following persons are invited: Members of the Alumnae association, graduates and former members of the school.

Punchard High School

The last event in the Punchard program is the reception tonight in the Town hall. A very large attendance and a splendid time is promised to the friends of Punchard.

Jonathan Edwards Memorial Volume.

There has just issued from the Andover Press a neat little volume containing an account of the Edwards Bicentenary, celebrated in Andover last October. The book is published under the direction of the Seminary Faculty. Its contents include the memorial sermon by the Reverend William R. Richards, D. D., pastor of the Brick Presbyterian church of New York; the introductory address by Professor Plattner of Andover; an address on the philosophy of Edwards by Professor F. J. E. Woodbridge, of Columbia University; Professor Smyth's valuable paper on the theology of Edwards; the poem by President Cole, of Wheaton Seminary; and the closing address on Edwards's influence, by Professor James Orr, of Glasgow. Not the least valuable part of the book is the collection of extracts from unpublished writings of Edwards, brought together by the late Professor Smyth, in illustration of statements made in his address. These selections treat especially of the Christian doctrine of the Trinity, and of the end of God in the creation of the world. All but two of the contributors are either professors in the Seminary or its graduates.

The book is on sale at the Andover Bookstore, and may also be had by application to the Librarian of the Seminary. Price bound in cloth, $1.

Memorial Service for Mr. Coy.

A memorial service in memory of Edward G. Coy, late head master of the Hotchkiss school, and for nineteen years Professor of Greek in Phillips Academy, Andover, will be held in the Chapel of the Hotchkiss School, Lakeville, Conn., at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday, June 19th. The service will be of an informal character, with several short addresses. Friends of Mr. Coy and of the Hotchkiss School are cordially invited to be present.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin C. Pike wish to thank the different societies and friends in Andover who were so kind in sending such beautiful flowers and messages of sympathy and encouragement to Mrs. Pike during her illness at Dr. Leitch's Sanatorium.

Seats for Punchard Exercises.

The arrangements for the Punchard graduation are nearly complete, and the exercises will be held in the Town hall on Thursday evening, June 16, at a quarter before eight o'clock.

In addition to the usual class parts, music, etc., the graduating class has secured Dr. A. E. Winslow, editor of the New England Journal of Education, who will deliver an address on "Twentieth Century Standards."

Admission will be by ticket only and will be limited to the seating capacity of the hall. Tickets will be sent out according to the plan outlined last week and those which remain will be offered for distribution to adults at the bookstore on Tuesday afternoon, June 14, at two o'clock. No seats will be reserved except those secured by the few coupon tickets which have been issued to parents, relatives of the graduating pupils and school officials. The graduating class consists of thirteen members: Mary A. Caldwell, Lucy S. Carter, Miriam Clark, Harold C. Cole, Harry W. Davies, Ethel M. Eaton, Chester J. Farmer, Mary C. Findley, William H. Foster, Flora B. Lindsay, Amy M. Moulton, Walter H. Thompson, Emily B. White.

Harry Lowd, whose severe illness compelled him to leave school for a part of his senior year, will receive a certificate of the work done.

Election of Officers.

The annual election of officers took place at the regular meeting of the Andover Mothers' club held last Friday afternoon. The following were chosen: Miss Reed, president; Mrs. Welch, vice-president; Mrs. Lindsay, secretary; Mrs. Poland, treasurer; Mrs. Paine, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Feeney, board of directors. Considerable interest was shown in the adopting of a constitution, which had been drawn up by a committee appointed for that purpose. After making a few changes, the club voted to accept it, as presented. A club picnic will be held August 5, at Canobie Lake Park. Tea was served by Mrs. Holden, assisted by Mrs. Ralph, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. J. W. Whittemore.

Lecture at Grange.

C. M. Gardner of Westfield, Mass., Past Master of the Westfield Grange and deputy of the Massachusetts State Grange, will give a lecture at Grange hall, next Tuesday evening, June 14. The subject of the lecture will be "The Other Fellow." Mr. Gardner gave the same lecture before the State Grange at Worcester last December and those who heard him were well repaid. He is a man of a fine, commanding presence, fluency of language, and graceful style, and anyone who takes the trouble to come to the hall will hear a lecture the equal of which is seldom surpassed.

After the opening and closing exercises of the Grange, the lecture, which will begin about 8.30 o'clock, will be open to the public. A small charge of ten cents will be taken to pay the necessary expenses.

SELECT AUCTION SALE OF JERSEYS AND BERKSHIRES. Hood Farm, Lowell, Mass., announces a select auction sale of 30 Jerseys and 50 Berkshires on Wednesday, June 15, the sale to begin promptly at 10.30 o'clock a.m. Those who have looked over the stock say there is not an indifferent individual in the lot. This sale affords an exceptional opportunity to obtain breeding stock of the best known and most profitable strains in these very popular breeds.

Three cows, or one-eighth of the 25 Jerseys selected to go into the World's Fair dairy tests at St. Louis, are bred at Hood Farm. One of the Hood Farm cows has milked at St. Louis over 50 lbs. in a day. Another has gone over 50 and still another has milked over 40. Young cows and heifers closely related to the cows at St. Louis and believed to be equally good are to be sold. Illustrated catalogue sent on application.

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY

Churches Held Special Services for the Little Ones—Interesting Exercises.

Children's Day was observed in the South and Free churches last Sunday and the ideal weather which prevailed added much to the pleasantness of the occasion. Special exercises were held in both the churches in which the children of the Sunday school participated.

In both churches the floral decorations were beautiful and added much to the service.

The children formed in a line and marched into the audience room to music. The little tots looked very neat and attractive in their light dresses and were given the seats in the center.

At the South church, after interesting exercises by the children, Mr. Shipman gave a short talk to them which was very appropriate and was enjoyed by all, while owing to the lateness of the hour Mr. Wilson at the Free church postponed his sermon.

At both churches plants were presented to the scholars which are prized very highly by them. Bibles and certificates were also presented to graduating classes at the South church, those going from the primary into the intermediate department getting Bibles, and those graduating from the intermediate into the main room receiving certificates.

At the Free church the graduating class recited excellently the Twenty-third psalm, the Beatitudes, the Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer, for which they received diplomas presented by Superintendent of Schools Corwin F. Palmer, who commended them on the way in which they went through their examination.

All children who are now seven years of age and have been baptised by the pastor were each presented with Bibles, accompanied by a few words of advice. The programs were as follows:

South Church

Children's Hosanna
Invocation and Lord's Prayer.
The Doxology.
The Twenty-third Psalm.
The Gloria.
The One Hundredth Psalm.
Intermediate and Primary Schools Anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is."

Changes in Teaching Force.

As the school year comes to a close it is natural that there should be some changes in the teaching force in our schools and it seems this year that more vacancies than usual will have to be filled. It is, however, noticeable throughout the New England states that there will be more changing around this year than for many years past.

In the Pynchard school the resignation of Principal Alton W. Peirce has been accepted but as yet his successor has not been appointed. Miss Frances E. Brooks will also sever her connection with this school and will spend the summer in Europe, preparatory to accepting a position in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Florence Ashby, who has been teaching in the seventh grade in the Stowe school is going to New Jersey and will be replaced by Miss Gertrude J. Green who is a graduate of the Plymouth Normal school and who has been teaching in the public schools of Milford, N. H. The special teacher in the Stowe school to succeed Miss Marcia Richards will be Miss Ida E. Jenkins, a graduate of the Randolph State Normal school of Randolph, N. H., who has been teaching in Winchendon.

Miss Harriet Carter, teacher in the third grade at the John Dove school, has been granted a year's leave of absence by the school board and Miss Alice S. Counts who has had charge of the first grade in the Indian Ridge school will take her place.

Miss Gracien Libbey will take up duties at Bloomfield, N. J., in the fall, and Miss Alice Turner, for three years instructor in Methuen, will fill her position, the fifth and sixth grades in the Indian Ridge school.

Grade one, vacated by Miss Alice S. Counts, will be filled by Miss Helena Lindsay, who has been teaching in Ballardvale.

In the Osgood school, Miss Anne J. Eaton will take the place of Miss Maud F. Harmon. The former is a graduate of the Hyannis Normal school and has been teaching for several years at Winchendon.

CLOSING OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Large Classes Leave the Town's Schools Prepared for Higher Education.

Stowe School.

The graduating class of the Pynchard school will attend Christ church next Sunday morning, when a baccalaureate sermon will be preached to them by Rev. Frederic Palmer.

Stowe School Graduation.

The graduation exercises of the ninth grade at the Stowe school were held this morning and were attended by many relatives and friends of the children. An interesting program was rendered by the scholars after which the graduates received their diplomas. The program was as follows:

Best Song, arr. from Mozart School
Historic Concord Arthur Cummings
Louisa Alcott Isabella Bruce
Nathaniel Hawthorne Elizabeth O'Sullivan
Violin solo Mrs. Wilson
Henry David Thoreau Ethel Hitchcock
Ralph Waldo Emerson Roy Hardy
Song, "King of the Forest" School

The teachers of the Indian Ridge school tendered a reception to Miss Louise Morrison yesterday afternoon as she is about to leave them. Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Weddings.

GRIBBEN-PIDDINGTON.

The marriage of Miss Jean U. Piddington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Piddington, and J. P. Gribben, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on School street, on Wednesday at high noon.

Rev. A. T. Belknap of the Baptist church officiated at the ceremony, the simple ring service being used. The bride was formerly a school teacher and is well known in town. She was dressed in a gown of white crepe de chene over white tulle and the bridesmaid, Miss Ada Piddington, the bride's sister, was attired in white muslin. Jesse Billington was best man. The ceremony was performed in the parlor beneath a bower of leaves and roses and the entire room was prettily decorated with laurel, blackberry leaves and cut flowers. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held when the many guests present expressed their best wishes to the happy couple. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Gribben left town on the 1.35 train for Portland where they will spend their honeymoon and after July 15, they will be at home in St. Paul, Minn., where the former is in the lumber business. They were the recipients of many presents.

Guests were present from West Somerville, Wyoming and Andover.

GOLDSMITH-SOUTHWICK.

A pretty home wedding took place Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Southwick, 13 East Oak street, Lawrence, when their only daughter, Miss Ethel Peabody Southwick, was united in marriage with Clarence Goldsmith of North Andover. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas S. Robert, pastor of the First Unitarian church, only the immediate relatives of both parties being present. The groom is a well known young man both here and Andover, where his parents reside. For some years since its inception he has been superintendent of the local water works. Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith have the best wishes of local friends for a future filled with happiness.

The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white roses and sweet peas. A wedding lunch was served, Page of Lowell catering. After receiving the congratulations of those present Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith left on the 9.15 Boston train for a brief wedding trip, returning from which they will reside at 31 Maple avenue, North Andover, where they will be "at home" to friends, Tuesdays in November.

PRATT-HAYNES.

The rare June days of this last week came most conveniently for the wedding which have taken place in it, one of the prettiest of which was at the home of Bancroft T. Haynes in Ballardvale, when his youngest daughter, Miss Elizabeth, was married to Stanley A. Pratt of this town.

The family circle being large the invitations were confined to the immediate connections. Guests were present from Boston, Cambridge, Somerville, Winchester, Wakefield, Medford, Lowell, Lawrence, Methuen and Andover.

The decorations were in charge of George D. Millett.

The officiating clergymen, Reverends A. H. Fuller and F. R. Shipman, with the groom and his best man, Edward Haynes, awaited the entrance of the bridal party in front of a bank of laurel. Loehgrin wedding march was played by Miss Cole and the ushers, Charles Baldwin and Chester Abbott, came in, followed by the little cousin of the groom, Edith Mills, in pink and white organza, scattering roses, the maid of honor, Miss Pratt, becomingly attired in a gown of Dresden lace and carrying a bridesmaid's roses, followed; then the bride, with her father, in a charming gown of white crepe de chine, carrying lilies of the valley, her single ornament a sunburst of pearls, the gift of the groom.

A reception followed, the parents of the bride and groom and Mrs. Dorcas Clark, great aunt of the groom, who celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday on that day, assisted in receiving. Many and valuable presents evinced the love and esteem felt towards them. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt have gone to Jamaica and on their return will reside in Dorchester till the autumn.

Marriage.

"At Orono, Maine, in the Congregational church, June 15, by Rev. F. A. Wilson, assisted by Rev. George M. Woodwell, James Warren Butten, B. S., of the University of Maine, class of 1902, and Miss Annie Josephine, daughter of the late Judge D. C. Wilson of Oldtown.

Pynchard School.

The graduation exercises of the senior class of the Pynchard school were held last evening in the Town hall for the second time and although there was an extremely large audience, everybody secured a seat and there was no crushing such as prevailed last year.

The program as usual was interesting and attractive and the address by Dr. A. E. Winslip was exceedingly bright and was heartily enjoyed.

The platform was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns from the greenhouses of George D. Millett. The school and glee club assisted in the exercises with two songs, under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth Hoar.

Dr. Winslip in his address took for the subject "Twentieth Century Standards." He congratulated the class on having received all of their high school education in the twentieth century and he considered it a great honor to live and work in the twentieth century. He also spoke of the ambitions of the people of this time to be always breaking records. He said that people had no desire to be efficient in any certain thing unless they could break a record. "Fifty years ago," he said, "people were satisfied if they owned a horse which could beat their neighbor's horse, now their desire was to have a horse that would beat the world."

He paid a loving tribute to Jonathan Edwards who he said was an extremely tender hearted man.

Dr. Winslip told of the organization of the people of the country. He said that everybody was organized and that people enjoyed organization. He rejoiced in the fact that he lived in America and in the twentieth century as this country affords all the opportunities that a young person can desire.

In New England especially is this a fact as from the reports these states are growing and enlarging in all branches of industry. The vital word to the graduating class was to get ready and to stay ready and do not shoot ahead of time but rather wait and let the other fellow do the shouting.

In closing Dr. Winslip congratulated the class for having completed their course in the twentieth century and bade them go forth and break a record for the good of mankind. The class prophecy by Miss Flora B. Lindsay was exceedingly clever as was the memorabilia by Miss Mary Findlay who presented each of the class with a token as a remembrance of the days spent at Pynchard.

The class presented to the school as a parting gift, through the president, Harry W. Davies, a beautiful reading stand neatly inscribed. Burnham White, president of 1905, accepted the present for the school.

The program was as follows:

Prayer
Music, "Day is Breaking" Apr. from Mozart School
Class History Ethel Martina Eaton
Address, "Twentieth Century Standards" Dr. A. E. Winslip
Music, "Pack Clouds Away" Grace Conant Glee Club

Presentation of Class Gift
Presentation by Harry W. Davies, 1904
Acceptance by Charles B. White, 1905
Class Prophecy Flora Baldwin Lindsay
Memorabilia Mary Caroline Findlay
Presentation of diplomas
Loehgrin Song
Benediction

Following is the graduating class: Mary Alice Caldwell, Lucy Shattuck Carter, Miriam Clark, Harold Clifford Cole, Harry Wesley Davies, Ethel Martina Eaton, Chester Jefferson Farmer, Mary Caroline Findlay, William Harnden Foster, Flora Baldwin Lindsay, Amy May Moulton, Walter Herbert Thompson, Emily Bell White.

Gutterton Botany Prizes.

The prizes offered in Pynchard school by Mr. Gutterton for excellency in Botany were awarded by Mr. Goldsmith in the opening exercises of the school Thursday. The prizes were won by Miss Florence Mears, of the first year class and Miss Alice Kendall of the Junior class.

Miss Edith Clark, Miss Lucy Abbott, Miss Ruth Shaw, Miss Margaret Cole, Harold Saunders and Fred Cheever were given honorable mention.

WEST PARISH.

The Self Improvement club met at the home of Mrs. E. W. Bontwell, Tuesday afternoon.

W. B. Hardy of Roxbury, spent Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hardy.

There will be a Sunday school concert on the afternoon of June 20th, in the Osgood school house.

Miss Edith Abbott, nurse at the Tewksbury Hospital, spent a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Abbott.

Obituary.

MISS HOPE G. CHRISTIE.

Miss Hope G. Christie died at the age of 73 years on Monday. She was well known by the older residents of the town and was highly respected by all who came in contact with her. The funeral was held at her late home on High street on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Frederic Palmer officiating. Interment was in the Episcopal cemetery.

Letter to Harry A. Ramsdell.

Andover, Mass.

Dear Sir: Three gallons saved is $12 to $15 earned.

Mr. Hanford Platt of Bridgeport, Conn., ordered 15 gallons Devos to paint his house, and returned 3 gallons. His painter said it would take 15; a lead-and-oil painter.

Hubbell & Wade Co. sold it. They say everybody has the same experience there.

The reason is, of course, they are used to poor paint.

What is poor paint? Anything not Devos; some worse than others. Besides, paints wear about as they cover. Double the $12 to $15. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOS & CO.

WHAT ALL THE WORLD IS DOING

Trend of Civilization in All Lines From Week to Week

POLITICS and GOVERNMENT

General.

The First Republican Gun.

What is generally regarded as the opening Republican gun in the presidential campaign was fired at Wilmington, Del., June 6, when Secretary of the Treasury Shaw addressed the Roosevelt Workingmen's club. He took the ground that the Republican party is one of encouragement and not of sympathy; that it represents policies reducing the occasion for almsgiving. He said its bounty was opportunity, while the Democratic party never failed to produce conditions which incite sympathy. In support of this thesis Mr. Shaw contended that wages have increased more than the prices of the necessities of life, thus answering what, he said, would be one of the chief arguments of the Democrats in the coming campaign. He said proof of his contention would be furnished by the highest authority in the United States before very long. Mr. Shaw also tried to show that "employment for all our people at a given wage, with living expenses high, is preferable to employment for only one-half of our people, with living expenses however cheap."

Knox in Quay's Place.

After a conference between President Cassatt, Don Cameron, H. C. Frick and the Republican machine leaders of Pennsylvania it was announced that Attorney General Knox would be appointed by Governor Pennypacker at once to the senatorial vacancy made by the death of Mr. Quay. Mr. Knox accepts the position by advice and consent of President Roosevelt and has tendered his resignation as attorney general. It is noticeable that the men behind Knox's appointment represent vast and varied interests of the trusts, and it is presumed that their object was to get Knox out of his present position. He was appointed June 10.

Delaware Revives Gray Boom.

The Democratic state convention of Delaware at Dover, June 7, contrary to the expressed wish of Judge George Gray, unanimously instructed its delegates to the St. Louis convention to support him for president. Notwithstanding this action Judge Gray still declares that he is not a candidate for president.

Republicans Carry Two States.

State and congress elections in Oregon and town elections in Rhode Island held June 7 resulted in sweeping victories for the Republicans. The Oregon legislature will be Republican by a large majority, and Republican candidates for congressmen were elected.

Democratic State Conventions.

The Utah Democratic convention at Salt Lake City, June 9, refused to instruct its six delegates to the national convention. They are claimed by different candidates.

The Virginia Democratic convention at Richmond, June 9, endorsed Parker of New York for president, but left the delegates to the national convention free of instructions.

The Colorado Democratic convention at Pueblo rejected by a vote of 397 to 108 a resolution to instruct for Hearst, although a majority of the delegates to St. Louis are known to favor the radical editor. The Kansas City platform was endorsed.

The Kentucky Democratic convention at Louisville, June 9, avoided the specific endorsement of the Kansas City platform by declaring its faith in the principles "expounded by Jefferson, exemplified by Jackson and ably defended by Bryan." A majority of the convention favored Parker.

The Nomination of Deenen.

When the final break in the Illinois Republican deadlock, June 3, brought about the nomination of District Attorney Deenen for governor it was generally conceded that the administration leaders had suffered a sharp rebuke at the hands of the Yates faction, which refused to line up for Lowden.

Legal and Criminal.

Another Gould Victory.

The efforts of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad to prevent the completion of the Cumberland extension of Gould's Western Maryland road were defeated June 8, when the Maryland state court of appeals sustained the right of the Western Maryland company to construct bridges and condemn rights of way across the property of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal. Connection will now be made with the West Virginia Central and Pittsburgh and the Wabash extended to tidewater at Baltimore.

Harriman's New Move.

E. H. Harriman and Winslow S. Pierce have filed in the United States circuit court at Trenton a second amended bill in their suit to restrain the carrying out of the proposed pro-rata plan of distribution of the assets of the Northern Securities company. The bill avers that the company was formed solely for the purpose of acquiring and holding the stock of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern companies and operating these roads jointly, and that this understanding constituted the Northern Securities company as custodian of the stocks of the two roads rather than an absolute owner of the stock.

Held For Young's Murder.

Because of the mystery connected with the death of "Caesar" Young, the wealthy bookmaker, who was shot while riding in a cab with Nan Patterson, an actress, in the streets of New York, June 4, the public has followed with unusual interest the legal developments of the case. Although the girl protested that Young had shot himself and a revolver was found in his right coat pocket, the nature of the wound in Young's breast was such, together with other circumstances, as to lead the authorities to the conclusion that she had done the shooting. Medical authorities agree that it was impossible for Young to have placed the pistol in his pocket if he had shot himself. The woman was held pending the action of the grand jury.

Notes.

The notorious octoroon, Hannah Elias, charged with blackmailing John R. Platt, an aged New Yorker, out of nearly $700,000 was arrested in her costly mansion, June 7, on the criminal charge of extortion. While being taken to court her carriage was mobbed by curious and scoffing throngs. In default of bail fixed at $30,000 she was confined in the city prison. She was discharged June 10 owing to the collapse of her accuser. * * * The District of Columbia court of appeals has affirmed the right of the secretary of war to dismiss R. J. Taylor, a clerk, because of her published articles attacking the Philippine policy of the government. * * * A passenger train on the Denver and Rio Grande was held up by robbers June 7 near Palisado, Colo., who rifled the express car safe and got away with booty. Later they were surrounded by ranchmen and one was killed. * * * As the result of a fight at Trail Lake, Miss. John Simms, a prominent merchant and planter, and his manager, one Cato, were shot to death by two negroes, Clark and Van Horn, who were in turn caught and killed by a mob of citizens. A third negro who interfered was also killed. * * * Douglass M. Smith, teller of the Tradesman's National bank of New Haven, Conn., was arrested after confessing to the embezzlement of $30,000 of the bank's funds. He is charged with having taken a much larger sum.

Foreign.

War on Tibet Now Certain.

The answer of the Tibetan forces to the ultimatum delivered by Colonel Younghusband, June 2, fixing the latest date on which he would receive delegates at Gyantse before advancing on Lassa, was not only refusal to transmit the letter to the authorities at Lassa, but a furious bombardment of a British outpost at Palla village at midnight of the same day. Although this assault was unsuccessful it has now been deemed necessary by the British government to order stronger re-enforcements, consisting of two regiments with mountain batteries, sappers and miners, to proceed at once from Simla.

End of Dominican Rebellion.

Word from Minister Powell at Port au Prince, June 6, told of the final battle in which the insurgents of Monte Cristi had been crushed by the government. This it was which led to the final peace settlement on board the United States cruiser Detroit, June 4, through the mediation of Commander Dillingham. By this agreement President Aoyama and mystery suggestive of Port Arthur's impending doom has excluded the rest of the world from the narrow Kwangtung peninsula since June 6, when the cable from the Asiatic mainland was closed to the public by the Japanese government as a war measure. Only the sound of heavy firing heard across the waters and the arrival of Chinese refugees at Chefoo told of the gradual closing of the Japanese trap on the beleaguered but desperately fighting Russian garrison and fleet. General Oku, with large re-enforcements at the mine cleared port of Dalny, was known to be past the outer line of defenses and hurrying for the final assault.

General Kuropatkin is said to have won a personal triumph over his rival, Admiral Alexeeff, by getting the czar's permission to stand pat at Liaoyang instead of attempting a forced march to the relief of Port Arthur in the face of the two Japanese armies of Kuroki and Oku, greatly re-enforced.

The important announcement was made that Field Marshal Yamagata, Japan's most famous soldier, had been appointed to the supreme command of all the Japanese armies afield and administrator of conquered territories pending diplomatic arrangements with China. This anticipates the fall of Port Arthur and the retreat of Kuropatkin.

Kuroki's army in Manchuria began a general advance, June 9, along the road to Liaoyang, defeating the Cossacks in battle at Siuyen.

dent Morales remains in office. All hostilities ceased from that date.

Sultan Yields to Bandit.

Admiral Chadwick cabled the navy department June 9, that the sultan had granted all of Raisul's conditions, including $55,000, freedom from taxation and amnesty for his tribe.

Executive.

Population of the Philippines.

According to the census just completed by General Sanger the population of the Philippine islands is 7,635,426, of which 647,740 are classified as wild and uncivilized. This is said to be the first accurate and complete enumeration of the archipelago ever made. The enumerators were mostly natives and the schedules were transcribed by the census office at Washington. Separate enumerations were made for 343 islands of which Luzon is the most populous with 3,798,507, Panay second with 743,646, Cebu third with 592,247, Mindanao fourth with 499,034 and Jolo fifth with 44,718. The city of Manila contains 219,020. The civilized natives are divided into eight tribes, the Bicol, Cagayan, Ilocano, Pangasinan, Tagalog, Visayan and Zambalan, the most numerous of which is the Visayan. While the great mass of the people are Malays, and had common origin, there is a difference in their written and spoken languages, but not much in their customs.

Successful Submarine Tests.

A series of experiments with submarine craft conducted by the navy department were resumed at Newport, R. I., last week. The Fulton, of the Holland type, remained submerged for twelve hours without discomfort to the crew. Prior to this the Fulton had made a run of ten miles in an hour and twenty minutes. Torpedoes were fired with an average range of 1,700 yards. The Porpoise, which was originally intended for harbor defense only, has been improved so as to be capable of a trip of 200 miles off the coast in safety.

Canal Commission's Secretary.

Dominic I. Murphy, commissioner of pensions under Cleveland, has been elected secretary of the Panama canal commission.

Entertaining Filipino Guests.

The visiting Philippine commissioners, after inspecting the world's fair, went to Washington, where they were entertained by the president and other officials. From there they were escorted to New York, West Point and New England points.

EDUCATIONAL

Future of the Public School.

Dr. Talcott Williams, the editor and critic of Philadelphia, takes the ground in the last issue of Charities that the public school is the natural link created by society between the community and the home and that the process has already begun which will gradually transfer to the school all training which calls for special equipment and leave to the home the influence of mother love and father desire, which will be all the stronger in proportion that the time of the parents is not engrossed in physical drudgery or educational routine. The first conception of the school was merely a place to acquire knowledge, while the arts of life were taught in the home, but nothing could prevent the inevitable change, and Dr. Williams foresees that in a few years the head of a large school, whether in the city or in the country, will be aided not merely by teachers, but by what are now known as settlement aids—namely, household visitors, visiting nurses, social organizations, dance halls, libraries, lecture courses, gymnasiums, etc., much of which now exists in embryo in many progressive schools.

When the city engineer's department was reorganized in 1888, he was made one of the assistant engineers. That position he retained at his death.

His military career was long and varied. At 18 years he enlisted in Co. I, Lawrence Light Infantry, Sixth Regiment, M. V. M., and was last sergeant in 1878, when he left for college. Later the command became Company F, Ninth regiment, and upon his return from college he again became a soldier, serving as first sergeant, 1st lieutenant and captain, resigning the latter position in 1890. Five years later he again became a volunteer in order to secure a long service medal. When the late war with Spain broke out he was one of the first to volunteer, and went with the Ninth to South Framingham, thence to Camp Alger in Virginia, and later sailed with the command from Newport News for Sibola, Cuba. He was a witness of the great naval battle off Santiago when Cervera's fleet was destroyed, having been assigned to guard duty on the auxiliary cruiser Harvard, and was on that ship when the shot broke out among the Spanish prisoners. Later he returned home in the troop ship Albatross, landing at Montauk Point. Here he was sick for several weeks with the fever, returning home in a greatly enfeebled condition. While at Montauk his wife died. He had written her a very affectionate letter from the hospital, full of hope for the future, which arrived after her demise. The fact of her death was not broken to him until several weeks after her burial.

His marriage took place in 1882. One son survives from the union, Eugene Francis O'Sullivan, who was graduated from the High school in the class of 1903. The young man has been with his uncle Mr. McArdle in Waterbury, Ct., for a year, engaged in business. He came home two weeks ago upon learning of his father's serious illness, and was with him night and day until the end. A daughter died in infancy. The other surviving members of the family are his mother, Mrs. Catherine O'Sullivan, two sisters, Miss Anna O'Sullivan and Miss Etta O'Sullivan, the latter a teacher in the Oliver school, and one brother, John P. O'Sullivan, a naval architect by profession, who is at present engaged in car construction work for the Interborough Rapid Transit Co. in New York.

Ex-Senator O'Sullivan Dead

Hon. Edward F. O'Sullivan died Thursday morning at 5.15 o'clock after a long and painful illness during which he was a patient sufferer. The funeral will take place Saturday morning from St. Mary's church at ten o'clock.

Edward Francis O'Sullivan was born in Lawrence, June 23, 1855. He died in that city June 16, 1904. He was the son of the late Eugene and Catherine O'Sullivan. He was born and died in the same house on Lawrence street. His parents were among the earliest settlers of the city on the north side of the river. He was graduated from the Lawrence High school in the class of 1874 at the age of 18. He was the poet of the class, giving high promise of the poetic temperament, which later was manifested brilliantly.

Edward F. O'Sullivan came by the honors acquired by him rightfully. He possessed the talent for higher things. He was versatile to the limit of the word. As a boy he worked in the mill. Then to the High school for four years, graduating, as before mentioned, at the age of 18, with the honor of class poet. He never failed to speak in terms of appreciation and kindness of the older class of teachers at the High school—of Miss Wetherbee and Miss Newell, and those others of the faculty under whom he studied. From the high school he went to the engineer's corps employed by the city on the construction of the water works. In 1878 he entered the University of Ottawa, Canada, from which he was graduated in June, 1882, with the degree of A. B. Later he received the M. A. degree from his alma mater. While at Ottawa he organized the college rifle corps which he captained for four years; also the "varsity" football team, which under his administration became the champion of all Canada. In the Dominion he was best known as a promoter of college sports. It can be rightfully said that to his persistent energy was due the healthy athletic spirit which now prevails in all the schools and universities of Canada.

His political career covered an interesting period of his life. He was elected to the Great and General Court of Massachusetts from the old lower district in 1883, serving in 1884 and 1885, both years having been a member of the committee on Labor, which in those years was one of the most important in the legislature, on account of the prominence of weekly payments, employers' liability and kindred acts which have found their way to the statute books. He was a persistent advocate of labor measures. His knowledge of mill affairs, gained from experience, his educational and natural attainments, made him easily the best informed and best qualified man on labor matters on the floor of the House. The late Gov. Wolcott was a member of the committee on Labor with him. Alanson W. Beal, who was the opposition leader, powerful because of the majority behind him, ready and apt in debate and an antagonist worthy of any foe, and he found the young member from Lawrence prepared at all times to cross swords in verbal combat with him. In those days, and until after he came back from Cuba a victim to fever and malaria, he was a powerful and convincing orator, with voice trained for effective speaking, and a mind stored with knowledge. He was first elected to the senate in 1886, serving in 1887; was defeated for re-election by William T. McAlpine by a majority of 53, and in 1888 in turn defeated Mr. McAlpine, serving in the upper house in 1889. After retiring from the senate, he engaged in newspaper work, and in 1897 returned to the city engineer's office, as an assistant. During his terms in the house he was employed in his spare time by the acting city engineer, on the Spicket river valley improvements. It was while at work here that he met Acting Mayor McCormick, who had been a miner and was employed in tunnelling for the main sewer. An attachment sprang up between them which existed thereafter.

When the city engineer's department was reorganized in 1888, he was made one of the assistant engineers. That position he retained at his death. His military career was long and varied. At 18 years he enlisted in Co. I, Lawrence Light Infantry, Sixth Regiment, M. V. M., and was last sergeant in 1878, when he left for college. 334 BOYLSTON ST.
(opposite the Arlington Street Church)

WILL RE-OPEN IN ITS NEW BUILDING, SEPT. 6, 1904.

This school now has the most elegant, complete and extensive private school building in America. In the planning and furnishing of its expense has not been considered even in the minutest detail. New fittings of special design will be found to have taken the place of the ordinary furniture used in school buildings. The entire outfit of the school in its old building has been sacrificed that the school in the new home might have only the newest and best obtainable.

EXPERIENCED TEACHERS.
The only feature recognizable will be the able and experienced corps of teachers who have given this school its wide-spread reputation. The tuition fees are the same as during the previous ten years, and pupils who contemplate attending may congratulate themselves that this year was the chosen time for their commercial course and the finishing of their school work.

COURSE OF STUDY.
The course of study prepares pupils thoroughly for all the duties of the counting room. Book-keeping (by any system); Stenography (Graham and Pitman systems); English Composition; Commercial Correspondence; Commercial Law; Commercial Geography; Commercial Hand-writing; Typewriting; Civil Service (preparation for examinations); Normal School Course (preparation for teaching).
Pupils will find the location of the school most accessible from all points; over 4000 cars daily, with a stopping place directly in front of the school building.
No agents, solicitors or canvassers are employed by this institution.

family had always attended St. Mary's. Here he was married, and here his children were baptized. From here his wife's body was taken to be buried, while he lay in a military hospital. Here it seems fitting that the last act in his life should be carried out. All that can be said of "Ned" O'Sullivan cannot be encompassed in a single article. As a public official he was the soul of courtesy. It was remarked recently that no person who ever served the city of Lawrence conducted himself toward the public in his official relations so gently and so courteous a way as "Ned" O'Sullivan.

He was a charter member and a leading official of the Lawrence lodge of Elks and was first president of the Lawrence Eyrie of Eagles.

CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS BETTER THAN A DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by All Druggists, Lawrence, W. A. Allen, Andover; C. H. Shattuck, Ballardvale.

SCHICK ELECTED CAPTAIN.

W. A. Schick '05, the famous Harvard sprinter, was yesterday elected captain of the Harvard track team for 1905. Schick's home is in Andover, and he prepared for college at the Phillips-Andover Academy, where he was the best sprinter for three years, and in his senior year set a new record. All of the members of the team have confidence in him.

For three years Schick has been the winner of both the 100 yard and 200 yard dashes in the annual dual games with Yale, thereby making the best record of any of the sprinters. Only the two colleges have turned out in the intercollegiate games Schick has not been so successful.

This year he came in an easy winner in both the dashes at intercollegiate, doing the two races in 10s and 22.5s, respectively. He is holder of both the Harvard and the dual records in these events. Schick is vice president of his class and a member of the institute of 1770 and the D. K. E.

TRIUMPHS OF MODERN SURGERY.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third of the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is antiseptic and when applied to such injuries causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by All Druggists, Lawrence; W. A. Allen, Andover; C. H. Shattuck, Ballardvale.

SEED BY HIS DOCTOR

"A doctor here has used me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coahuila, Cal. "At the trial he praised my medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by all Druggists, Lawrence; W. A. Allen, Andover; C. H. Shattuck, Ballardvale.

SCENIC ROUTE TO ST. LOUIS.

Via the Boston & Maine Railroad.

The St. Louis Exposition is indeed proving all that its projectors prophesied for it. The buildings are all open; the exhibits are in readiness, and the superb management and order is truly wonderful. One feature, which appeals to the visitor is the ease and facility for transportation around the grounds. The Intra-Mural Railway will take one to any section of the enclosure. The strange collection of foreign races take kindly to their temporary homes, so natural and faithfully produced are their native abodes and environments. At the Philippine Exhibit, one almost imagines oneself in the far away islands, while watching the agile natives work and frolic in their huts and surroundings. In another portion Ottomans and subjects of the Sultan are living in indolent Eastern fashion; and in the Arctic region hardly Esquimaux are contented amidst ice and snow and polar surroundings.

The buildings represent architecture of various styles and ages; and the "Pike," which corresponds with the famous Midway, far surpasses in wonderment the Chicago show.

Thousands of people from New England and the East, from now until the last of November will travel towards St. Louis; and to meet the demands of these people, the Boston and Maine Railroad has arranged to run to St. Louis via the following routes:

Through the famous Hoosac Tunnel within plain view of the Berkshire Hills, through the peaceful Deerfield Valley, and west through Cooper's country, the Mohawk Valley, to Buffalo, where one may stop over and visit Niagara Falls; then on to St. Louis via the Wabash. Should you desire to journey through that famous garden of Southern New York via the Erie route along the shores of the winding Chemung, through the fertile lands and busy cities of the middle west; or if you desire to visit Canada, taking in Montreal, Toronto and stopping at Niagara Falls, traveling in the initial portion of your journey through Northern New Hampshire in view of the White Mountains, along the northern shores of the Connecticut in Vermont—this trip being the Grand Thinking Route—you can do so. Make your selection, or send to the General Passenger Department, Boston and Maine Railroad, Boston, for the St. Louis Exposition Booklet, which gives all information in regard to the Exposition and how to get there. It will be mailed free.

BASSETT-HOSMER.

The colonial homestead of the Osgoods, the birthplace of the first Postmaster General of the United States, and 148 Second street, was the scene of an exceedingly pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon when at 6 o'clock Miss Georgianna Junibelle Hosmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Eugene Hosmer, was made a wife to Arthur Walden Bassett. The Rev. William E. Gibbs D. D., pastor of the Lawrence Universalist church tied the knot. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was very becomingly gowned in white crepe de chene over white silk with trimmings of lace and white tulle. A spray of orange blossoms was in her hair and she wore a flowing veil. Miss Annie L. Hosmer, a sister attended as bridesmaid and Leon H. Bassett, brother of the bridegroom was best man. The bridesmaid wore a costume similar to that of her sister, which she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Little Miss Elsie L. Bassett, the youngest sister of the groom was flower girl. She was dressed very prettily in dainty white muslin and carried a large bouquet of pinks and evergreen. The ceremony was performed in the spacious parlor which was very attractively decorated. The color scheme of pink and green were carried out, long strings of evergreen were hung from overhead and along the walls of the apartment. The wedding party took their stand before a massive bank of greenery from which rose the bride and groom. The other rooms were decorated to correspond with the parlor, daisies and clover blossoms in large bouquets relieved the greenery.

Following the marriage a reception was held from 7 till 9 o'clock at the bride's home when Mr. and Mrs. Bassett received the congratulations of their many friends. Those who assisted the couple in receiving were the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hosmer, and Mrs. Angie D. Bassett, Miss Annie L. Hosmer and Leon H. Bassett. The usher was Herbert E. Hosmer, brother of the bride and Edward E. Curley. A very neat collation of ice cream and cake was served. Rhodes of Andover catered. A large punch bowl filled with lemonade punch furnished refreshment for the guests.

Guests were present at the reception from Gloucester, Andover, Methuen, Lawrence and North Andover. The number of about a hundred. The caslon was enhanced by the presence of the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Clevia McCoy who is in her ninety-first year. It was a very happy event indeed for her.

The bride was favored with a large number of costly presents. Noted were gifts of silver, cut glass, china and other ware, and more useful articles. Amid a shower of rice and confetti with the sincere wishes of all for continued happiness and prosperity in the future Mr. and Mrs. Bassett left shortly after 9 o'clock their wedding being unknown. They will enjoy an extended wedding trip and on their return will make their home indefinitely at the Hosmer home, 440 Osgood street. Mr. Bassett is employed as a clerk with Currier and Campion, Essex street grocers in Lawrence.

CLOSING AFFAIR OF SEASON.

The summer party in Merrimack hall on Friday evening conducted under the popular auspices of the Young Men's Catholic Association was probably the closing affair of the season. It was a fitting close as in every particular it was a great success and afforded great pleasure for all who attended. The hall was filled throughout the evening many guests being present from out of town, including Cambridge, Haverhill, Lowell, Lawrence, Methuen and Andover. Reading and other places. Financially the party was particularly a success. The evening was a perfect one for a dance as the air was cool and all found it very comfortable dancing.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the affair deserve every credit for its great success. The floor for dancing was in charge of the committee as aids. The president, P. J. Casey was the grand conductor. His aids were: Charles A. Gillespie, Fred W. Phelan, James L. Toohy, John J. Willis, Joseph W. Bolton, Joseph E. Lawlor and Arthur B. Keefe.

The first of the evening was devoted to a concert given by the American orchestra. The program was: March, Dandy Fifth, Selection, Yankee Consul, Cornet solo, Russian Fantasia, Fred Banan, Poular Medley, Feast Fads and Fan-Galop, Wide-a-Wake.

The orchestra furnished the music for dancing a fine order having been prepared. It was first arranged to bring the jolly affair to a close at 12 o'clock but such was the great enjoyment that the hour was delayed and at one o'clock the last waltz was played. A car left for the Centre and later for Lawrence at the close. A large number went to Lawrence.

During the evening the spacious parlors of the Association were thrown open to all. Bernard J. Hughes was in charge. Popular officers John Campbell and Charles McCarthy were at the door to collect tickets. John Costello served efficiently in the box office as did the following who had charge of the two checking rooms, Joseph Gillespie and John Gile, John Walsh and Frank Campbell. At intermission ice cream was to be had in the banquet hall.

FUNERAL OF DANIEL CRONLEY.

The funeral of Daniel Cronley, who passed away on Saturday evening at his home, 22 Cleveland street at the age of 57 years, was held this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Michael's Catholic church. The sacred edifice was largely filled with friends and acquaintances of the deceased and his family. The home was visited by many who wished to express their sympathy and look for the last time upon the well beloved face of the deceased. A long funeral cortege made its way to the church and slowly wound its way to the Immaculate Conception cemetery in Lawrence where the remains of the deceased were placed at rest in the family lot.

At the church high mass was celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Cronley of Hopkinton, a nephew of the deceased. Gregorian mass was sung by the choir. Choir Master J. Harry Lynch sang the De Profundis at the offertory. After the mass Miss Katherine Donnelly rendered touching, "Take Him My Jesus to Heaven."

The gathering at the church evinced the great respect and high esteem in which Mr. Cronley was held by those who knew him. The remains lay in peaceful repose in life-like semblance in a beautiful oak casket, silver trimmed. The plate was inscribed:

D. NIEL CRONLEY.

It was a desire of the family that no flowers be sent. Cut flowers were received and special mention may be made of a beautiful piece received from the employees of the Boston and Maine railroad at the Sutton street station. At the rites relatives were present from West Manchester, Hopkinton, Lynn, Salem, Lawrence and the surrounding towns. The pall bearers were: John Dunn of Salem, John Morrissey, John Sullivan, Patrick Doran, Charles McCarthy and Eugene Sullivan.
